8:30-8:40 Welcome & Remarks..... Mr. Carl Carter
President, MASI Board of Directors

8:40-9:00 Remarks..... Hon. Liles Williams
Chairman, Mississippi Workers' Compensation Commission

9:00-10:15 Keynote Address Chef Robert St. John
My South - The History, Traditions, Eccentricities and Absurdities of Food and Life in the South

Restaurateur/chef/food columnist/world class eater, Robert St. John, will give an informative, humorous, and sometimes irreverent presentation on Southern culture — past and present - and the foods Southerners love, and even some of the foods that we hate. His presentation will cover growing up in the South, eating in the South, cooking in the South, living in the South, and raising children (you guessed it) in the South. Sometimes outrageous, occasionally hilarious, and eventually poignant, St. John covers all of the bases. Stick around for the book-signing!

10:15-10:30 Morning Break Exhibit Hall

10:30-11:15 Legislative & Regulatory Forum: Issues that Affect You!
Mississippi Legislators, Regulators and Attorneys will discuss current Workers' Comp issues. Included will be a discussion of pending revisions of Mississippi's Fee Schedule, possible changes to the Workers' Comp law that are being discussed in the Mississippi Legislature, and critical issues that are currently being debated in Congress.

MODERATOR: Mr. Dan Gibson, Executive Director, Miss. Association of Self-Insurers

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 2009 continued

11:15-12:15 Morning Break-Out Sessions

A) Why Self-Insured Workers' Comp works in Corporations... Camellia Ballroom

MODERATOR: Mr. Preston Williams, MWCC

SPEAKERS: Ms. Dean Watkins, The Taylor Group

Mr. Dan Risher, Marshall Durbin

Mr. Andy Elkins, IP Casino Resort Spa

Mr. Jody Joiner, Roseburg Forest Products

B) Wellness in the Workplace — A Win-Win for Everyone Magnolia E

SPEAKER: Ms. Molly Barron, WellnessWorks

12:15-1:15 Conference Lunch The Coast Restaurant

1:15-2:45 Ethical Considerations: When to Operate? When Not To?

Dr. John Davis, a leading regional specialist in spine treatment at NewSouth NeuroSpine, and an engaging and entertaining speaker, will discuss the ethical issues involved in deciding on proper treatment of back injuries and other related conditions. When is surgery the best option? When should it be the last? Come enjoy a fun session and learn about the best treatments!

2:45-3:45 Who is the Star of Your Workers' Comp Program?

Mark D. Cheairs, author of Carrying Lighter Loads Traveling Higher Roads, and a prominent consultant in the WC field, will lead us in a motivational program unlike any other. If a Hollywood producer came to your business and made a movie about your WC program, who would be the star? Would it be a movie that Fox business would use as an example for others to follow? Would it be a movie that runs over budget and makes you cry from beginning to end? Come and listen to Mark so your WC program movie is one of triumph not tragedy! Be sure to stick around for the book-signing.

3:45-4:00 Afternoon Break Exhibit Hall
